A Professional and a Dear Colleague

It is with a heavy heart that we share the sad news of the passing of our dear friend, Ing. Michael Mifsud, Deputy President of the MEA. This is a great loss to the Association as Michael has served on the MEA council for many years. His passionate, balanced, and constructive contributions were always at the centre of the discussions at council. Just a couple of weeks ago, Michael was one of a core team of council members who contributed tangibly to a lively session about the MEA's mission statement. He also formed part of an MEA delegation that was invited to visit the European Parliament last October.

Michael was appointed CEO of Multigas in July 2009. Multigas supplies medical and industrial gases and equipment, serving a wide variety of sectors within the Maltese market. Ing. Mifsud has focused on consolidating the company's credentials by strongly encouraging employee empowerment and development.
